REMARKS

The document which OCA wants to release has some additional information on page 18 which is not related to the Hatch Act. However, Bob doesn't want to excise it as it's also AIUO, and he wants to avoid the appearance that we've excised any pertinent information.

Recommend we release as is.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration

FROM:

[redacted]
Office of Congressional Affairs

SUBJECT: Release of HHB on Political Activities to Senator Cohen

1. An assistant to Senator Cohen has requested that we provide a copy of guidance that we give to employees on activities permitted under the Hatch Act. The Subcommittee on Oversight of Government Management, Senate Committee on Governmental Affairs, is considering revisions to that act and the Senator, a Member of that Subcommittee, is interested in knowing if the Agency puts additional restrictions on its employees beyond those provided in the Act.

2. The attached document, an extract from [redacted] advises employees on what political activities are allowed under the Hatch Act. If we provide a copy to Senator Cohen, it would satisfy this request and show that we place no additional, general restrictions on our employees beyond those in the Act. (We would, of course, expect employees on an individual basis to seek approval for outside activities that may impact on [redacted] Agency security considerations, or issues of propriety. This requirement was mentioned to the staff member.)

3. I request permission to release a copy of this document to Senator Cohen since it is marked "Administrative Internal Use Only". Because of this marking, the copy would be made available to him through the SSCI rather than through the Subcommittee on Oversight of Government Management.
